Two Presidents' Thoughts. . . . Christine Kenworthy & Nell Stinson

Are you inspired? Tap into your creative intelligence and play! Any curiosity, spark or inkling is a starting point: all you need is to begin. I've found out that constructing the "simplest thing" can make something that is amazing be it weird, boring, fantastic or even ugly. We all learn something about ourselves, right? For me, art is self-care; it serves a purpose for my well-being. The process opens up space for any idea, be it simple or complex. We all need to explore and develop our ideas and dive in to inspiration. Brighten up your day, maybe by adding a pop of color to an existing piece of clothing. Simple? Maybe, maybe not? But, this little creative piece of art could also bring into your life a playground for you to explore.

Recently, I made a linoleum block of a bird, and printed it onto a wacky pocket. Now I just have to figure out what piece of clothing to add it to. Simple and so much fun! So, be good to yourself, have fun and play with your ideas

You wouldn't think a sewing podcast would work, but it is entertaining and informative every time. Covers a wide range of sewing topics, also features interviews with artists and organizations. 45th Anniversary Exhibition: New Directions

January 13 – March 27, 2022

This special anniversary exhibition highlights recent acquisitions at San Jose Museum of Quilts & Textiles in a series of thematic installations spanning three galleries. Both the specific artworks and broader themes explored in this survey reflect the diverse reasons our Museum seeks and acquires new works. New Directions prominently features recent artwork from SJMQT's Artist in Residence program. Established in 2016, this program supports local artists with on-site studio space and opportunities to exhibit work in the Museum's Maker Space Gallery. This program has deepened the Museum's commitment to supporting contemporary artists from or working in the Bay Area, including Alexander Hernandez, Liz Harvey, Amber Imrie, Carolina Cuevas, Tricia Royal,

Mung Lar Lam, and more.

Works of art gifted by the Museum's many donors and patrons appear in each section of New Directions. Their generosity and dedication allow us to expand SJMQT's collections and cultivate curiosity, wonder, and excitement in our audiences.

Wash the Calendar: Victoria Martinez

January 13, 2022 – April 3, 2022
